CARDHOLDER NAME _____

The Ballet West's Park City Ballet Corps is a group of local philanthropists who are committed to bringing world-class ballet to our Summit County community. Together, we will present an annual production of Ballet West's main company, support the bi-annual Frederick Quinney Lawson Ballet West Academy performances, and provide year-round community engagement for our residents and students. Membership begins at $5,000 per year or $416 per month. All support will be directed to Summit County programs, productions and events.

Benefits for all Ballet Corps Members

- Exclusive invitations to Ballet West events and performances with main company artists
- Name recognition with Park City events and performances, Ballet West's season playbills, website and Front Row magazine
- Annual subscription to Ballet West's Front Row magazine

“I have amazing memories from growing up in Aspen, Colorado and seeing Ballet West perform. It is incredible we have this world-class company in our Utah community.”

Julie Hopkins, Park City, UT Resident

Education & Outreach Programs

Ballet West offers the most extensive Education and Outreach program of any ballet company in the United States! The following programs will serve over 6,400 students and residents in Summit County this year.

- Ballet West for Children: Ballet West II presents a lecture + performance demonstration in one Summit County school.
- I CAN DO Workshop: One Summit County school to participate in the four-day workshop.
- In-School Presentations: Ballet West Academy Peggy Bergmann Park City Campus students present an excerpt of The Nutcracker to three Summit County schools.
- Senior Steps: Guided ballet classes for seniors at the MARC and The Field House.

Ballet West Academy Scholarship Fund

Ballet West offers merit-based and need-based scholarships for students attending the Peggy Bergmann Park City Campus. In addition, The Solomon Fund, through the Park City Community Foundation, offers need-based tuition support for low-income Latinx students.

“I’m deeply passionate and committed to ensuring equal opportunity for ALL Park City students through recreation and sport. This is why The Solomon Fund supports Ballet West Academy scholarship opportunities for Latinx students.”

Beano Solomon, philanthropist and former member of Ballet West Board of Directors
